

Italy

- ② 1. Name two independent countries that lie within Italy.
- ① 2. Name the capital of Italy (the Eternal City).
- ① 3. Name the mountains that run down the center of Italy.
- ① 4. Italy's longest river is the _____ River.
- ① 5. The Renaissance started in Italy and is a French word meaning _____.
- ① 6. What family was credited with promoting the Renaissance by helping struggling artists.
- ① 7. A government ruled by nobles is called an _____.
- ① 8. Name the Italian dictator who sided with Adolf Hitler during WWII.
- ① 9. 95% of Italians are what religion?
- ① 10. In what Italian city does Michelangelo's statue of David stand?
- ① 11. What church in Florence, Italy did the mason Brunelleschi make a dome where he used no scaffolding?
- ① 12. Saint Francis of Assisi will start an order of priests based on obedience, humanity, and not keeping wealth. This order will become known as the _____.
- ① 13. The first Christian Roman ruler in 312 AD was _____ he helped end the persecution of Christians.
- ① 14. During the Roman Empire, this place was the center of the community, an area with temples, shops, and where farmers brought goods to sell. This place is in ruins today and is known as the _____.
- ① 15. This building stood over 160 feet high, had 80 entrances, could hold 50,000 spectators and was the largest of all amphitheaters during the Roman Empire.
- ① 16. This fountain lies in the heart of Rome and the honored legend states that any visitors who faces away from the fountain and tosses a coin into it will someday return to Rome.
- ① 17. An ancient temple honoring Roman gods was built in 125AD and is the most complete Roman structure in Roman today.